HARYANA GOVERNMENT
ANIMAL HUSBANDRY DEPARTMENT

Notification

The 21st February, 1995

No. G. S. R. 19/Const./Art. 309/95.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Haryana hereby makes the following rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service of persons appointed to the Haryana Veterinary (Group A) service, namely:

PART 1—GENERAL

1. These rules may be called the Haryana Veterinary (Group A) service Rules, 1995.

Definitions.

2. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Commission" means the Haryana Public Service Commission;

(b) "direct recruitment" means an appointment made otherwise than by promotion from within the Service or by transfer of an official already in the service of the Government of India or any State Government;

(c) "Government" means the Haryana Government in the Administrative Department;

(d) "institution" means—

(i) any institution establishment by law in force in the State of Haryana; or

(ii) any other institution recognised by the Government for the purpose of these rules.

(e) "recognised university" means—

(i) any university incorporated by law in India; or

(ii) in the case of a degree, diploma or certificate obtained as a result of an examination held before the 15th August, 1947, the Punjab, Sind or Dacca University; or

(iii) any other university which is declared by Government to be a recognised university for the purpose of these rules;

(f) "Service" means the Haryana Veterinary (Group A) Service.
PART II RECRUITMENT TO SERVICE

3. The Service shall comprise the posts shown in Appendix A to these rules:

Provided that nothing in these rules shall affect the inherent right of the Government to make additions to, or reductions in, the number of such posts or to create new posts with different designations and scales of pay, either permanently or temporarily.

4. (1) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service unless he is:

(a) a citizen of India; or
(b) a subject of Nepal; or
(c) a subject of Bhutan; or
(d) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st day of January, 1962, with the intention of permanently settling in India; or
(e) a person of Indian origin who has migrated from Pakistan, Burma, Sri Lanka, or any of the East African countries of Kenya, Uganda, the United Republic of Tanzania (formerly Tanganyika and Zanzibar), Zambia, Malawi, Zaire and Ethiopia with the intention of permanently settling in India.

Provided that a person belonging to any of the categories (b), (c), (d) or (e) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been issued by the Government of India.

(2) A person in whose case a certificate of eligibility is necessary may be admitted to an examination or interview conducted by the Commission or any other recruiting authority, but the offer of appointment, may be given only after the necessary eligibility certificate has been issued to him by the Government.

(3) No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment, unless he produces a certificate of character from the Dean or Director or equivalent designation of the University, College or Institution last attended, if any, and similar certificate from two other responsible persons, not being his relatives who are well acquainted with him in his private life and are unconnected with his University, College or Institution.

5. No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service by direct recruitment who is less than 32 years or more than 45 years of age on Ist July preceding the last day of the submission of application to the Commission.

6. Appointment to any post in the Service shall be made by the Government.
Qualifications.

7. No person shall be appointed to any post in the Service, unless he is in possession of qualifications and experience specified in Column 3 of Appendix B to these rules in the case of direct recruitment and those specified in column 4 of the aforesaid Appendix in the case of appointment otherwise than by direct recruitment:

Provided that in the case of appointment by direct recruitment, the qualifications regarding experience shall be relaxable to the extent of 50% at the discretion of the Commission or any other recruiting authority in case sufficient number of candidates belonging to scheduled castes, backward classes, ex-servicemen and physically handicapped categories possessing the requisite experience, are not available to fill up the vacancies reserved for them, after recording reasons for so doing in writing.

Disqualifications.

8. No person—

(a) who has entered into or contracted a marriage with a person having a spouse living; or

(b) who having a spouse living, has entered into or contracted a marriage with any person;

shall be eligible for appointment to any post in the Service:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied, that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such person and the other party to the marriage and there are grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

Method of recruitment.

9. (1) Recruitment to the Service shall be made,—

(a) in the case of Director, Animal Husbandry,—

(i) by promotion from amongst Chief Superintendent Government Livestock Farm Hisar, Joint Director (Animal Husbandry) Headquarter, Joint Director (Poultry) and Project Director State Cattle Breeding Project Hisar; or

(ii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in the Service of any State Government or the Government of India;

(b) in the case of Chief Superintendent Government Livestock Farm Hisar, Joint Director (Animal Husbandry) Headquarter, Joint Director (Poultry) and Project Director State Cattle Breeding Project Hisar,—

(i) by promotion from amongst Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry) Animal Health, Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry) State Cattle Breeding Project Hisar, Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry) Sheep Breeding Farm Hisar, Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry) Rinderpest, Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry) Government Livestock Farm Hisar, Deputy Director (Animal Husbandry)

(ii) 25% by direct recruitment; or

(iii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in Service of any State Government or the Government of India;

(f) in the case of Deputy Director (Statistics) Headquarter:

(i) by promotion from amongst the Statistical Officers; or

(ii) by transfer or deputation of an officer already in the Service of any State Government or the Government of India.

(2) Appointments by promotion shall be made on seniority-cum-merit basis and seniority alone shall not confer any right to such promotions.

(3) When any vacancy occurs or is about to occur in the Service, the Government shall determine in what manner such vacancy shall be filled in.

(4) No person shall be appointed in Service unless he has passed the departmental examinations in HVS-II.

10. No person shall be appointed to the Service directly unless he has appeared for medical examination before the standing Medical Board of Haryana and he has been declared by such Board to be physically fit for the duties which he will be called upon to perform as a member of Service;
Provided that when appointment to the Service is made either by transfer or by promotion, a person so appointed shall not have to undergo a fresh Medical examination if on his first recruitment to the Service he had already been declared medically fit by the State Medical Board and is in Service.

11. (1) Persons appointed to any post in the Service shall remain on probation for a period of two years, if appointed by direct recruitment and one year if appointed otherwise:

Provided that:

(a) any period, after such appointment, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post, shall count towards the period of probation;

(b) any period of work in equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to any post in the Service may, in the case of any appointment by transfer at the discretion of the appointing authority, be allowed to count towards the period of probation fixed under this rule; and

(c) any period of officiating appointment shall be reckoned as period spent on probation, but no person who has so officiated shall, on the completion of the prescribed period of probation be entitled to be confirmed unless he is appointed against a permanent vacancy.

(2) If, in the opinion of the appointing authority the work or conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory, it may—

(a) if such person is appointed by direct recruitment, dispense with his service; and

(b) if such person is appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment;

(i) revert him to his former post; or

(ii) deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of the previous appointment permit.

(3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the appointing authority may—

(a) If his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory,

(i) confirm such person from the date of his appointment, if appointed against a permanent vacancy; or

(ii) confirm such person from the date from which a permanent vacancy occurs, if appointed against a temporary vacancy; or
(iii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily, if there is no permanent vacancy; or

(b) if his work or conduct has, in its opinion, been not satisfactory,—

(i) dispense with his services, if appointed by direct recruitment, if appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of previous appointment permit:

(ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such order as it could have passed on the expiry of the first period of probation.

Provided that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

12. Seniority, inter se of the members of the Service shall be determined by the length of continuous Service on any post in the Service:

Provided that where there are different cadres in the Service, the seniority shall be determined separately for each cadre:

Provided further that in the case of members appointed by direct recruitment, the order of merit determined by the Commission shall not be disturbed in fixing the seniority:

Provided further that in the case of two or more members appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows:

(a) a member appointed by direct recruitment shall be senior to a member appointed by promotion or by transfer;

(b) a member appointed by promotion shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer;

(c) in the case of members appointed by promotion or by transfer seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such member in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred; and

(d) in the case of members appointed by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay, preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment, and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then by the length of their service in the appointments and if the length of such service is also the same, the older member shall be senior to the younger member.

Liability to serve

13. (1) A member of the Service shall be liable to serve at any place, whether within or outside the State of Haryana, on being ordered so to do by the appointing authority.
(2) A member of the Service may also be deputed to serve under:

(i) a company, an association or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the State Government, a municipal corporation or a local authority or university within the State of Haryana;

(ii) the Central Government or a company, an association or a body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, which is wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Central Government; or

(iii) any other State Government, an international organisation, an autonomous body not controlled by the Government or a private body;

Provided that no member of the Service shall be deputed to serve the Central or any other State Government or any organisation or body referred to in clauses (ii) or (iii) except with his consent.

14. (1) Every person recruited to the Service through direct recruitment shall have to pass the departmental examination as per Appendix within the probation period, if he had not already passed the said examination in class-II Service.

If such a person fails to pass the departmental examination within the probationary period, the appointing authority may dispense with his Services, if appointed by direct recruitment.

(2)(i) If a person passes the departmental examination within the prescribed period of two years from the date of his appointment, he shall be entitled to get two increments including that already earned by him from the date, if any, following the last day on which the departmental examination is completed. However, he shall be entitled to get the third increment after the completion of three years of service.

(ii) If a person is allowed extension in the period within which the said examination is required to be passed, his next increment(s), for the period subsequent to that within which the departmental examination was to be passed shall be released only from the date following the last day on which the examination is passed.

(iii) If a person fails to pass the departmental examination or any part thereof and is subsequently exempted by the Government from passing the departmental examination or any part thereof as the case may be, his increment(s) for the period subsequent to that within which the departmental examination was to be passed shall be released from the date he is given such exemption.

(iv) Further increments will normally be admissible on the dates on which they would have become otherwise due.

15. In respect of pay, leave, pension all other matters, not expressly provided for in these rules, the members of the Service shall be governed by such rules and regulations as may have been, or may hereafter be adopted or made by the competent authority under the Constitution of India or under any law for the time being in force made by the State Legislature.
16. (1) In matters relating to discipline, penalties and appeals, members of the Service shall be governed by the Haryana Civil Services (Punishments and Appeals) Rules, 1987 as amended from time to time:

Provided that the nature of penalties which may be imposed, the authority empowered to impose such penalties and appellate authority shall, subject to the provisions of any law or rules made under article 309 of the Constitution of India, be such as are specified in Appendix C of these rules.

(2) The authority competent to pass an order under clauses (c) or (d) of sub-rule (1) of rule 9 of the Haryana Civil Services (Punishment and Appeal) Rules, 1987 and appellate authority shall be as specified in Appendix D to these rules.

17. Every member of the Service shall get himself vaccinated and re-vaccinated as and when the Government so directs by a special or general order.

18. Every member of the Service, unless he has already done so, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established.

19. Where the Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

20. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the appointing authority may impose special terms and conditions in the order of appointment if it is deemed expedient to do so.

21. Officers appointed to Haryana Veterinary Services Class-I will be allowed to undertake professional practice subject to the provisions that the Government may forbid practice whenever it appears likely to interfere in the efficient performance by an officer of his official duties.

22. Nothing contained in these rules shall affect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for Scheduled castes, backward classes, ex-servicemen, physically handicapped persons or any other class or category of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the State Government in this regard from time to time:

Provided that the total percentage of reservation so made shall not exceed 50% at any time.

23. The Punjab Veterinary Services Class-I Rules, 1930, which were in force immediately before the commencement of these rules are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.
